Like many nonprofits and arts organizations across the nation, the Crocker Art Museum was hard hit by the devastating impacts of the Covid-19 pandemic. As local and regional cases surged to new heights in late 2020 and early 2021, the health and well-being of our members and visitors continued to be our top priority, and the Crocker developed new and innovative ways to engage with our community and serve those who rely on the Museum for arts education and enrichment every year.

With the support of members and donors like you, the Crocker produced dozens of virtual and in-person programs once we were able to reopen to the public, serving thousands of members and visitors last year. The Crocker’s permanent collection grew by 589 artworks, as we continued to diversify our offerings of works by women, BIPOC, and LGBTQ artists, and exhibition highlights include Todd Schorr: Atomic Cocktail; Legends from Los Angeles: Betye, Lezley, and Alison Saar in the Crocker Collection; Country, City, and Sea: Dutch Romantic and Hague School Paintings from the Beekhuis Gift; Scheherazade and Her Sisters: Real and Imagined Gilded Age Women from the Dijkstra Collection; and Spirit Lines: Helen Hardin Etchings among others. We even celebrated Wayne Thiebaud’s 100th birthday with the opening of the Wayne Thiebaud 100: Paintings, Prints, and Drawings exhibition and a virtual birthday party with over 600 members in attendance.

This is only a small glimpse of the impact the Crocker made last year thanks to your support. The following Annual Report summarizes the last fiscal year (July 1, 2020 – June 30, 2021) and highlights the greater impact we made both online and in-person, and how we engaged youth, families, adults, and seniors in our community through the Crocker’s programs, collections, and exhibitions.

Thank you to the thousands of members and donors who stepped up and supported the Crocker throughout the year with their memberships, annual fund donations, sponsorships, gifts of art, and contributions to the Museum’s endowment. Your generosity helped make this possible.

With gratitude,

Chelsea Larson
Director of Development
Although the Museum remained closed to the public for the majority of the 2020–21 year, our engagement with art and the community never stopped.

New programs like The (Un)Expected City Film Series, a collaborative, three-day film series, produced in collaboration with CSU Sacramento Assistant Professor and film curator Dan Janos. This experimental screening featured narratives from a diverse group of local filmmakers and explored the city through four themes – politics and activism in the City of Trees; portraits of locals who make up this diverse city; the volatility of the environment; and the evolution of the City through the eyes of the people who shape it. A community-wide collaborative effort, The (Un)Expected City was supported by the Center for Sacramento History and the Office of Arts and Culture and Sacramento Film + Media.

5 virtual community outreach events with local organizations such as 916Ink and Effie Yeaw reaching 295 households.
47 public programs serving 1,594 households.

11 Official Rogue Book Club meetings, discussing novels inspired by the exhibitions on view, such as Optic Nerve, An Object of Beauty, Hitting a Straight Lick with a Crooked Stick, and more.

Zora Neale Hurston: Hitting a Straight Lick with a Crooked Stick, 2020, by Andres Lira

Primero, Sueño (still), 2020, by Andres Lira
589 works acquired for the Crocker’s permanent collection, including art by Marten Ryckaert, Alson Skinner Clark, and Thornton Dial.

26 member-only activities for the Museum’s 10,081 member households; activities centered on 7 exhibitions and included 4 virtual exhibition previews, 8 member-only days, and 14 Director’s Circle virtual happy hours.

12 exhibitions opened, 3 of which were through the Museum’s Student and Community Exhibition program.
33,370 in-person visitors

1.1 million of page views of crockerart.org from 320,000 viewers, and the launch of several virtual programs, including Gallery Bytes, as well as the launch of the online Museum store.

51 studio art classes taught by 17 local artists for 477 attendees — all by Zoom!
