Year in Review
July 1, 2018 – June 30, 2019
Dear members,

At the end of every year, we take stock of our prior year’s activities and provide you, our members and greatest supporters, with a short overview. This Year in Review provides a look at the Crocker Art Museum’s financial status and some key metrics, but what you may not see in these numbers and images is the depth and breadth of what the Museum provided to our community. Supported by hundreds of valued docents and volunteers, Crocker staff produced more than 600 public programs, 100 studio classes, organized and displayed more than two dozen exhibitions, and welcomed nearly 260,000 people through our doors.

The 2018/19 fiscal year saw many program highlights, including the introduction of our Global Rhythms concert series, Movies Off the Wall, and Fourth Fridays for art-loving children and their caregivers. In addition, we were proud to receive grant funding to support our Art & Wellness programs, such as ASL-interpreted tours, Art on the Spectrum, and Artful Meditation. And we provided a dynamic and diverse slate of exhibition offerings including Testament of the Spirit: Paintings by Eduardo Carrillo; American Beauty and Bounty: The Judith G. and Steaven K. Jones Collection of 19th-Century Painting (a promised gift to the Crocker); and History, Labor, Life: The Prints of Jacob Lawrence. I trust you have found your life enriched by these and other Crocker exhibitions and programs as we always strive to enhance the intellectual and cultural life of those throughout the Sacramento Region and beyond. Of course, our success relies on the hard work, dedication, and great generosity of the Museum’s many donors, volunteers, and staff, without whom none of our activities would be possible.

The Museum is stronger when members are engaged, and I encourage you to visit often, bring a friend, shop at the Museum Store, attend a program or class, and share your experiences with others. It is only through your support and involvement that the Crocker is able to connect people in unexpected ways with art, ideas, each other, and the world around them.

With gratitude for all that you do,

Lial A. Jones
Mort & Marcy Friedman Director and CEO
