

Points of Pride

- The world's foremost display of California art / nation's premier display
- One of America's finest master drawings collections
- World renowned for its collection of California art and European master drawings
- Education department nationally recognized for excellence
- One of North America's 50 largest museums in terms of gallery space
- One of the Largest collections of international ceramics in the U.S.